Prof.(Dr.) Raja Ray, PI- VRDL Project, Dept. of Microbiology, IPGME&R

Sir,

This is to bring to your kind attention that HBeAg& Ab ELISA is performing for diagnosis of HBV infection stages and determination of its treatment regimen under VRDL project going on in IPGME&R & SSKM Hospital. HBeAg& Ab ELISA kit is required for determination of HBeAg& Ab in human plasma or serum samples by using a single kit.

As there is huge sample load for HBeAg & Ab testing in every month (200 samples/ month, 44 samples / kit), approx. Five HBeAg& Ab ELISA Kits per month are needed to produce reports on time for proper patient service. For this, we require reputed companies/direct importers/authorized distributors to submit their respective quotations, following which the kit will be procured from chosen bidder.

It would be helpful if you kindly grant permission for purchasing these HBeAg& Ab ELISA kits under VRDL project. (Viral Research and Diagnostic Lab (VRDL) (Project No. V. 25011/171/2015-HR date 11th Feb 2016)
